Exam Instructions for Students

Things to bring on the day of your paper:

- 1) Identification documents such as entry proof, NRIC and EZ-link card (backup in pencil box)
- 2) Stationery (answer booklet will be provided) and thermometer
- 3) Depending on the subject - calculator, texts, dictionaries.
- 4) Exam venues are strictly out of bound at all times.

Before Start of Paper

Know the venue and time of your paper. Know where you are supposed to be seated before you enter the exam venue - refer to the seating plan on the exam notice board (placed in the foyer).

Report at exam venue at least 30 minutes before the start of the paper. If it is a classroom venue, wait outside the classroom, instead of the study benches.

Be seated at least 15 minutes before the start of the paper. Question papers will be distributed after students are seated.

No additional time given to students who are late.

Be attired in half or full school uniform for exam.

Visit the toilet to clear the bladder before entering the exam venue.

Mobile phones are to be turned off and kept in the bags. The bags are to be placed outside the exam venue.

Check pencil cases, pockets etc that there are no unauthorized materials.

During the Paper

Silence must be observed at all times.

Place your NRIC on the desk for verification of identity.

Listen to instructions given by the Chief Invigilator or Invigilator.

Do not be so eager to write name etc on the answer booklet.

Start writing only when instructed to do so.

No consumption of food (unless prior approval is given). Plain water is allowed.

Stay for the full duration of the paper. No one is allowed to leave before the paper ends.

Inform the invigilators if not feeling well.

Raise your hand if you

(i) want to go toilet

(ii) wish to pick up something you dropped

At the End of the Paper

Stop writing immediately when told to do so by the Chief Invigilator or Invigilator.

Writing of name is NOT permitted.

Remain quietly seated while the answer booklets are being collected and counted.

Do not leave the seat to go toilet unless permission had been granted.

Return all question papers and unused answer booklets.
